Hollywood special make-up artist Chris Hanson is also part of the crew. His credits include Age of the Dragons, Hellboy, Underworld, Men in Black, The Green Mile, The X-Files, The Faculty and Spawn.

Steel is currently in negotiations with composer Dave Volpe, who most recently finished a year-long mentorship with film composer and personal hero Thomas Newman (Finding Nemo, The Green Mile) while being enrolled in the scoring for Motion Pictures and Television Program at USC.

Steel rounds out her crew with director of photography Michael B. Call (127 Hours), co-producer Christian M. Koch who has worked with Steel on her first three films and executive producer Jessica M. Bair.

Blood Fare is a green, sustainable film production, and Eco/Sustainable Production Executive Micheline Birkhead was on set to ensure the project meets green certification requirements.

Fans can become part of the crew and get their name in the credits for a simple donation of $25. Interested parties should contact Steel directly at ja@warriorentertainment.com. Additional levels to become involved in the project are listed at IndieGoGo.
