TheGeekFiles @montimer Yes, it's a more shaky description for beginners in the game, but if they are making a film, or have made one, it's accurate.

TheGeekFiles @montimer Nothing inherently wrong with the word 'filmmaker', sometimes it's a necessary variation of director, and far better than 'helmer' role in the classic sci-fi movie and series Buck Rogers in the 25th Century, and award-winning writer-director J.A. Steel.

Which is your top film of 2012

Blood Fare is a Civil War ghost story with a modern twist, by J.A. Steel and co-producer Christian K. Koch. This is Steel's fourth feature film.

It's the tale of Corporal Henry Trout (S. Edward Meek - Wild Stallion), who in 1861 fought valiantly in a forgotten skirmish after the first battle of Bull Run. Then, 150 years later, he comes face to face with his descendants as the battle for blood continues on a haunted battlefield.

Tyler (Brandi Lynn Anderson from the Syfy original series Zeros) and her brother Chad (Adrian West), Henry's fifth generation grandchildren, challenge the legend of Charon the Ferryman, as the lines between the living and the dead become blurred.

Gerard - recently seen in the Syfy movie Ghost Town - plays Professor Meade, mentor to Tyler. Kim Sonderholm, most recently seen in the newly released Little Big Boy, appears alongside Gerard as Professor Malick.

The cast also includes Michelle Wolff (NCIS, Chicago Hope, ER, Providence), Savannah Ostler (Vengeance), Bridget McManus (Wanted), Scott Beringer (Ocean's Eleven), Brenden Whitney, Alison Trowse, Thomas J. Post, Antonio Lexerot and April Knight.

Special make-up effects are by Chris Hanson, whose previous credits include Hellboy, Underworld, Men in Black 2, The Green Mile, The X-Files, The Faculty and Spawn.

Mastered by Universal Music's Grammy-winning Erick Labson, the first song of the Blood Fare soundtrack has been released on iTunes. It is The River Mountain Band's Lay Down Your Trouble, with lyrics by J.A. Steel, music by J.A. Steel and Caleb S. Gray, and piano arrangement by Amanda Lee Bowman.
