BLOOD FARE PREVIEW!

We don't get as many independent film productions as we would bloody well like - The Horror Movie Massacre was not only intended to be a horror film blog but a site dedicated to all those film projects out there looking for a little exposure - no matter the budget. After a few quiet months ,things are looking up now as some interesting looking projects are filling up our long starved inbox.

Warner Bros. Motion Picture Imaging Completes Digital Coloring Of Female Action Filmmaker J.A. Steel's "Blood Fare"

SALT LAKE CITY, UT.— On September 27, 2011, J.A. Steel, the award winning female writer and director, announces the completion of the digital coloring of her fourth feature film "Blood Fare." The up-and-coming colorist, Jeff Pantaleo, completed the digital coloring on the newly developed Scratch workflow at Warner Bros. Motion Picture Imaging (MPI).

"Blood Fare" is a Civil War ghost story with a modern twist, by J.A. Steel and Co-Producer Christian K. Koch. It is the tale of Corporal Henry Trout (S. Edward Meek - "Wild Stallion"), who in 1861 fought valiantly in a forgotten skirmish after the first battle of Bull Run. 150 years later, he will come face to face with his descendants as the battle for blood continues on a haunted battlefield. Tyler (Brandi Lynn Anderson from the upcoming Syfy original series "ZEROS") and her brother Chad (Adrian West), Henry's fifth generation grandchildren, will challenge the very legend of Charon the Ferryman, as the lines between the living and the dead become blurred.

Remakes! I haven't heard about that. Time to start a picket-line ...

A tad short, i know. Expect a redux very soon.

Now you're talking!And what's this shit i'm hearing about remakes?Leave the Monster Squad alone!

Dr. Blacksteed wrote...

Who has been disparaging Monster Squad? These people must be brought to justice ....

Dr. Blacksteed wrote...

Definitely not. Made for TV, billed as "Wes Craven's Chiller" in 1985, it's a good example of a 100% forgettable movie by one
