It's time for another, much anticipated indie film to finally get more details released and this one looks fun, fun, FUN! With horror and action and a really cool plot, what's not to look forward to? Besides, the trailer is available to watch and if with the marketing these guys have been doing (I know about a year's worth of marketing), it'll be a shame if you didn't at least watch the trailer and try to get to Dragon Con to see the world premier of Blood Fare... Also, don't forget to read the press release below:

J.A. Steel, the award winning female writer and director, announces the world premiere of her fourth feature film "Blood Fare" for the Dragon*Con 2012 in Atlanta, GA. As part of the official Dragon*Con 2012 programming the screening is scheduled for Friday, August 31st at 8:30pm at the Hyatt Regency Atlanta, Hanover CDE. A live Q&A with "Blood Fare" star Gil Gerard, internationally recognized for his lead role as Captain William 'Buck' Rogers in the science fiction movie and television series "Buck Rogers in the 25th Century," and director J.A. Steel will follow the screening.

Synopsis: "Blood Fare" is a Civil War ghost story with a modern twist, by J.A. Steel and Co-Producer Christian K. Koch. It is the tale of Corporal Henry Trout (S. Edward Meek – "Wild Stallion"), who in 1861 fought valiantly in a forgotten skirmish after the first battle of Bull Run. 150 years later, he will come face to face with his descendants as the battle for blood continues on a haunted battlefield. Tyler (Brandi Lynn Anderson from the upcoming Syfy original series "ZEROS") and her brother Chad (Adrian West), Henry's fifth generation grandchildren, will challenge the very legend of Charon the Ferryman, as the lines between the living and the dead become blurred.

He demonstrated his unique creativity in "Hellboy", "Underworld", "Men in Black", "Men in Black 2", "The Green Mile", "The X-Files", "The Faculty", "Spawn" and many other productions.
